DECO PALMS WALLCOVERING

Hand-Embroidery on Red Wool Sateen

Inspired by Alexandre Benois's stage sets for Petrushka, designed for the Ballet Russes in 1911, Deco Palms presents a lush grove of palm trees in varying species and heights across each panel. Fan-shaped leaves and feathered fronds are hand-embroidered in the original gold colorway on a soft red wool sateen, highlighting over 20 embroidery techniques.

COSMOS WALLCOVERING

Hand-Embroidery on Red Wool Sateen

A majestic constellation is hand-embroidered onto red wool sateen, with celestial spheres crafted from brilliant metallic threads and intricate beading. Inspired by ancient astronomical depictions—from the star studded ceiling of Egypt's Pyramid of Teti at Saqqara to the azure frescoes of 14th-century chapels and cathedrals—this design features a diverse array of stars, each uniquely embroidered to showcase a variety of techniques.

MACCHIA WALLPAPER

Standard Colourway on Pitch Dyed Silk

Hand-gilded ribbons and simple shapes seem to glow against a black dyed silk ground in this bold, striking abstraction. Named Macchia, after the Italian word for “spot” or “stain,” the design recalls a Renaissance technique of sketching with bold color. Some gilded forms are antiqued to evoke the look of tarnished bronze, adding depth and a vintage allure to this large-scale composition.

NAMBAN WALLPAPER

Special Colourway SC-290 on Deep Rich Gold Gilded Paper

Evoking the artwork of Imperial Japan, Namban is an abstract seascape, representing the country's early commercial contact with Europeans, exquisitely illustrated in a 3-dimensional gold leaf pattern which is then tarnished and burnished to create the impression of light breaking through clouds onto waves below. A flock of soaring Cranes spans the composition: a motif seen frequently in the Art Deco era. The design references the work of Jean Dunand with its interplay of swirling coils and graphic lines.

L'EDEN WALLPAPER

Special Colourway on Tarnished Silver Gilded Silk

de Gournay's L'Eden reimagines a mural originally crafted by Joseph Fuchs and published by Desfosse in 1861. Thought to have graced the London International Exhibition in 1862, this design captures the lush beauty of a virgin rainforest in exquisite detail. Hand-painted onto a Tarnished Silver Gilded Silk background, it features a gentle ombre gradient rising gracefully from the base to the top of each panel.

BUTTERCUP CHAIR - COLLECTIVE Y X ANASTASIA NYSTEN

The Buttercup Chair embodies the gentle elegance and rounded form of the buttercup flower. Upholstered with de Gournay's cotton velvet, its circular base and soft, flowing curves create a cozy, inviting seat that mirrors the warmth and comfort of soft petals. An oversized pillow rests on the chair, hand-embroidered with de Gournay's Glyph Motif. This intricate pattern, designed by Beirut-based duo David/Nicolas, draws inspiration from ancient wall engravings and symbols, with a blend of natural raffia, metallic soft wires, and voile appliqué on a wool sateen base - giving the Buttercup Chair a sense of refined artistry.
